Congratulations to acting graduate Vincent Martella. The Phineas and Ferb star will join the cast on the AMC popular drama The Walking Dead (Season 4, which will begin airing this October) playing a character named Patrick.

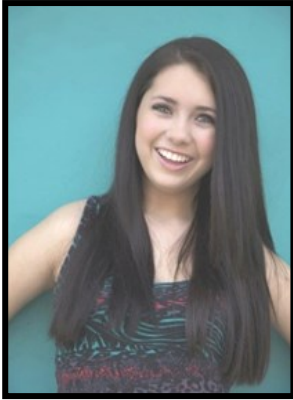

As quoted in Entertainment Weekly, Vincent says, “He’s right around Carl’s age but a little bit older. He’s one of the new people who Carl gets a little closer with.

Carl hasn’t really had anybody his age, so now you kind of get to see Carl’s relationship with people his own age and that’s one of the things that Patrick is bringing to the show.” Patrick is one of the new characters brought into the Prison after the end of Season 3. It’s unclear if he is someone from Woodbury, or if he is brought in from an outside group of survivors. Vincent also says, “I’ve been a big fan of The Walking Dead since day one”.

Vincent is from Deland and found success here in Central Florida at an early age singing and acting. He started his career here at The Maile School landing local commercials before moving to a bigger market. Some of his impressive credits include commercials for Pringles, Glad, Zaxbys and American Express. His feature films include Role Models starting Paul Rudd and Baitshop with Billy Ray Cyrus, television work for The Mentalist, and a starring role as Greg on the Chris Rock show Everybody Hates Chris. Martella is best known as the voice of Phineas Flynn on Disney’s hit animated series Phineas and Ferb.

Congrats to Image, Modeling & Acting grad Kaitlyn Chana. She followed her dream of working at a network news station in NYC and her dream came true this past summer. There were over 10,000 applicants who applied for the NBC internship, yet 300 applicants were chosen and of that only 10 were selected for the Today Show. Kaitlyn said, "This program allowed me to immerse myself in all aspects of the live broadcast. I was able to be one of the Royal Announcers when the royal baby made news working with Al Roker, Willie Geist and Mel B. Every task I was given allowed me to harness a stronger perception of what my career could look like and I am extremely grateful for NBC and the Today show family."

Kaitlyn was able to work with top talent such as Matt Lauer, Savannah Guthrie, Natalie Morales, Jenna Wolfe, nightly news anchor Brian Williams as well as being on air over a dozen times with Kathie Lee and Hoda. Way to go Kaitlyn. We are so proud of you!
