

A Whole New World for Sarah Meahl

Congrats to acting graduate Sarah Meahl for being cast as Ariel's stunt double in the co-production tour of Disney's Little Mermaid. The show features flying choreography with Cirque du Soleil-style costumes to simulate swimming in the ocean. Pictured left is Sarah at one of her many fly (swimming) rehearsals. She "swims" 40 feet in the air every night on a fly harness.

The tour just closed in Dallas, and is headed for Houston and Atlanta soon! In the meantime, Sarah works as a Dance Competition Judge for VIP Dance, and is also a Sculpture Model for the famous Sabin Howard. She recently received a Helen Hayes Nomination for "Outstanding Ensemble" at The Shakespeare Theatre Company in D.C. She will return to The MUNY in St. Louis later this summer to play Cha-Cha in "GREASE!"

Sarah was born and raised in Orlando, and as a child, split the majority of her time between the dance studio and training as a gymnast. Sarah also began singing and taking acting classes here at The Maile School which opened doors for her. She landed many jobs in the entertainment industry such as the starring role as Natalee Holloway on Court TV /Tru TV's Haunting Evidence: Natalee Holloway. Her other credits include work for Universal Studios, Walt Disney World and The Discovery Channel. Sarah was accepted as a Musical Theatre Major to Point Park University in 2008 and graduated Magna Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Theatre Arts and a Minor in Dance in 2012.

Sarah can now call NYC her "home base". Since graduating, she has worked all over the country in Regional Theaters including Shakespeare Theatre Co, (DC), Kansas City Starlight Theatre, The MUNY (St. Louis), Papermill Playhouse (NJ), Pittsburgh Musical Theatre, The Pittsburgh Playhouse, and Walnut Street Theatre (Philadelphia). New York City: "One for My Baby" Broadway Workshop and The Astaire Awards 2013.

Did you see Maile School's acting grad Stefanie Scott in her second episode of NBC's Law & Order SVU March 12th? Her character Clare Wilson was back to her troubled life and troubling others. Her first episode aired this past January and they were so pleased with her character and performance they asked her back for a second episode. Stay tuned to see if she will be back for a third. Stefanie is best known as Lexi Reed on Disney's Ant Farm and also had roles in Wreck It Ralph and Disney's Frenemies. We are so fortunate that Stefanie returns to Florida and teaches workshops here at The Maile School. Be on the look out for Stefanie's workshops later this year.

Patrick James always wanted to try the acting business but as he says, "life, family and business got in the way. Then I hit a major birthday and decided it was time to do something for me." Three years ago he enrolled into the acting and advanced acting programs here at The Maile School. Since then Patrick has booked jobs for Lexus of Melbourne, Mitsubishi Air Conditioning, Thermo Spa, The Golf Channel, WKMG Local 6 and NASCAR to name a few. Patrick is a real-estate agent but is moving more and more into the acting business staying busy with auditions and booking film work through Full Sail Productions. Keep up the hard work Patrick!

Acting grad Juan Santos has been in the industry since 2006. Juan says, "The Maile Acting School was where I started and the foundation I needed for being professional at auditions and on set." He recently shot a principal speaking role in Spanish for Walt Disney World shooting for 1 week. Juan had the opportunity to go to every park including the water parks, the Disney Cruise Ship, and interact with all the characters. Some of his commercial bookings include Publix, Verizon (SAG) and the Florida Lottery as well as films at Full Sail and TV work on Burn Notice. He also landed a featured role in the film Day One starring Kat Dennings and Chad Michael Murray. Juan also performs several days a week at Sleuths Mystery Dinner Theatre so if you ever go there look for Juan!

Stan Madray attended acting and advanced acting classes here at The Maile School over 15 years ago but had to put things on hold for personal reasons. Three and half years ago he came back because he said, "I had a burning desire that just wouldn't go away." Stan began pursuing the industry again and has booked many jobs for clients such as Bob Dance, Payless Auto Sales, Walmart, Mercedes-Benz, Mid Florida Credit Union and Optical Outlet to name a few. To continue his training he also books a lot of film work through Full Sail Productions and recently landed the lead role on a film titled Taste of Heaven. Great job Stan!

Congrats to graduate Ericka Dunlap she landed a role in the musical comedy Disenchanted playing Frog Princess. Disenchanted is now playing at the Straz Center in Tampa through April 13th and was given rave reviews. Last year Ericka was featured in Jets Magazine as Beauty of the Week in which she says, "is an honor". Ericka was crowned Miss America 2004 and since then has not stopped. Following her year of service as Miss America, Ericka has enjoyed many years as a successful corporate speaker, diversity advocate and spokesperson delivering over 100 keynote addresses. She was also cast on the Emmy® Award-winning reality show The Amazing Race. Ericka is a graduate of the University of Central Florida and is the founder of the Crown Jewel Foundation, an organization that invests in the lives of young women and encourages them to strive for excellence and overcome obstacles in achieving all their goals. We are so proud of Ericka and all her success!

Acting grad Jim McDonald has been busy. He played a character from Dustin Hoffman's The Graduate for a Website Developer company's website, booked a spot for a Solar-Powered golf carts and another for Bryan Health Hospital. Jim played 3 characters in a musical stage production called Celery Soup about the history of Sanford. He also landed 5 telephone VO prompts for Senior Safety First and completed a 16-hour industrial VO project for the Department of Energy. Finally, his quartet Sanford Harmony (male, a cappella) performed at the Sanford Art Walk. Congrats Jim!

Spring Fashion Show

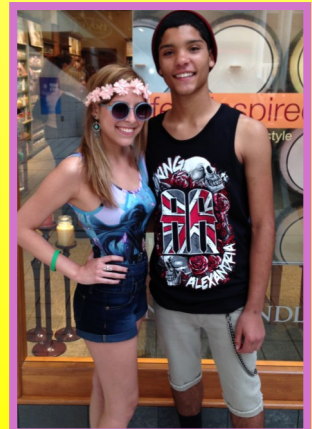

On Saturday, March 8th The Maile School presented a Spring Show at the Seminole Towne Center.

The Maile All Star Performing Troop kicked off the show with an acting performance followed by a runway fashion show.
