

Arielle Kebbel Stars in Hallmark Film

Congrats to Maile School acting grad Arielle Kebbel on her starring role of Georgie in a Hallmark Channel Original Movie titled Bridal Wave. As Georgie’s wedding draws near she has doubts surrounding her plans to marry Dr. Phillip Hamilton (David Haydn-Jones), a dashing and prominent plastic surgeon.

Though Phillip qualifies as the “perfect” fiancé, Georgie feels a romantic spark is missing in their relationship. Tensions rise even further when Phillip’s sophisticated mother, Felice (Jaclyn Smith), blatantly frowns upon Georgie’s working class origins. On the picturesque island, Georgie keeps finding herself in chance encounters with Luke Griggs (Andrew W. Walker), a handsome ex-architect, who walked away from a high-end architectural firm to enjoy a simple life. When an undeniable chemistry develops between Georgie and Luke, Georgie must decide if she’s going to move ahead with her rapidly approaching marriage to Phillip.

Arielle’s successful career in LA began when she was only 17. She landed the recurring role of Lindsay on the series Gilmore Girls. Arielle is currently shooting Chris Carter’s Amazon series titled The After. She also has a recurring role in the new HBO series Ballers, starring opposite Dwayne “The Rock” Johnson.

Arielle’s impressive credits include Brooklyn Brothers, a Toronto Film Festival selection, I Melt With You, which premiered at the Sundance Film Festival, the blockbuster hit film Think Like a Man, as well as the feature films The Uninvited, John Tucker Must Die, and Aquamarine. She also had a recurring role as Lexi on the CW’s popular show The Vampire Diaries. Due to her character’s popularity, Arielle was asked to host The Vampire Diaries original recap series titled Rehash, which inspired her to take her hosting duties to the next level. As one of her first jobs in this arena, she became the host for the CW’s summer dating game show “Perfect Score.”

She also starred in the Hallmark Channel’s 2012 number one movie A Bride For Christmas. Continued success Arielle!

Star Talent

A big congratulations goes out to graduate and acting instructor Shellita Boxie. She booked and had the opportunity to perform as a stunt marcher in the feature film Selma. Shellita says, "This was my dream come true. To work on a historical film honorably directed by Ava DuVernay and starring David Oyelowo, Carmen Ejogo, and of course Oprah Winfrey". Be sure to go see and support this awesome film if you haven't already.

In 2014 Shellita had a SAG nomination for The Walking Dead as Best Stunt Ensemble on a TV Show. Her other impressive resume industry credits include The Hunger Games: Mockingjay-Part 1, Pain and Gain, A Change of Heart, VH1's Single Ladies, Tyler Perry's hit films The Family That Preys, Why Did I Get Married Two and Madea's Big Happy Family. She has had the opportunity to stunt double for top names such as Janet Jackson, Vivica Fox, Danai Gurira and Shannon Kane to name a few.

We wish this very talented actress and stunt woman more success in 2015.

At 5 years old, kids acting graduate Michael Champion took his very first class here at The Maile School. The class enabled him to obtain an agent, which led to modeling and filming commercials shortly thereafter. He absolutely loves acting, whether live on stage, or on camera. Michael booked several commercials including, Florida Hospital, Listerine, Glazer Children's Museum, nTelos Wireless, & BoJangles, to name a few. Michael booked his first SAG commercial with Publix, and soon after that, he booked a SAG National with Choice Hotels. 2014 was especially great for Michael as he stayed busy working on several different projects. He is most excited about the feature film Robo-Dog, in which Michael plays the lead role of Tyler Austin. Michael worked closely with some of LA's top actors such as Patrick Muldoon who plays Tyler's father, and Olivia D'abo in the role of Tyler's mother. Michael also worked with one of his most all time favorite actors, Wallace Shawn, who portrayed the role of the villain. Robo-Dog was shot here in Orlando and also features many other Maile School grads. Be on the look out for a sequel. Michael says, "It doesn't feel like working when you love it so much"! Well said Michael.

Congratulations to Image, Professional Modeling and Acting graduate Paulette Melendez. She won a free entry to the USA National Miss Scholarship pageant and will be competing at Nationals this summer at Walt Disney World. Paulette currently holds the title of Miss Florida National American Miss. She received and is proud to be the recipient of the Golden Achievement in Service Award. Some of her organizations she works with include The Sunshine Foundation, Greatest Investments Girls Camp, Relay for Life and the Brain Cancer Association. Congrats again Paulette. Bring home the crown.

As a child Germaine Brooks studied here at The Maile School and began his career doing TV commercials for various local outlets and appearing on Nickelodeon as well. Becoming a young adult Germaine became more involved in the music side of the industry founding his own recording label titled Low- G Records. After several successful releases he began to focus again on acting and script writing. He landed several TV and film roles most notably appearing as a feature in the film Lila and Eve starring Jennifer Lopez and Viola Davis. He will be making his film debut at this years prestigious Sundance film festival where Lila and Eve is premiering. Germaine appears to be a young star on the rise who's true potential we have only witnessed a glimpse of. Great Job!

Acting grad Noah Schnacky's most recent project is the lead role of Calvin in the SAG feature film titled Turtle Tale and in the mobile series Hitstreak that shoots in Miami where he just wrapped season 2. Noah is an ASCAP singer/songwriter, opened for IM5B at the Celebration of Voices concert. His first original, Miami to LA, was rated the best song of the Summer 2014 by J14 Magazine and is approaching 1 million views on Youtube. His next original will be released this spring. He has found a niche in hosting and motivational speaking, and his recent events are iFlorida Department of Education, FLVS Annual Opening Doors to the World Gala, Dream Big Foundation's, Central Florida's Got Talent, Annual Fundraiser (with Jim Payne), OCPS Orange County's Top Talent, Orange County's DARE (Anti Drug Program) as well as a regular guest teacher for OCPS Middle and High Schools. Noah was even awarded the Key to the City, by Ocoee Mayor, Scott Vandergriff. Way to go Noah!
