

Nickelodeon's Jack Griffo in the News

Teen Acting graduate and Maile all star performing troop member Jack Griffo has been very busy. He recently starred as Vance in the brand new original TV Nickelodeon movie titled Splitting Adam that premiered on February 16th. This comedy is about a 15 year old boy named Adam who is so busy he decides to clone himself to get things done. Jack's character Vance is the senior lifeguard and most popular guy at Splash N' Crash. He's also Adam's macho nemesis with the muscles to prove it. He's an older, cooler dude who has everything Adam doesn't – a band, a car and an attitude!

Jack has also joined the cast of Those Left Behind, an indie movie starring Daphne Zuniga from Melrose Place, Michael Hogan from Battlestar, Debra Mooney from Everwood and Coby McLaughlin from Parenthood. Upon returning to her childhood home with her son to see her ailing mother, Shelly (Zuniga) must confront the demons of her past in order to move on with her life. A beautiful story about family, loss, young love and reconciliation. Jack will play Shelly's son Noah, who takes his girlfriend along on the trip to his grandmother's home. Though he's eager to enjoy the summer with her, he remains sensitive to his mother's pain.

Also be on the lookout later this year for Jack as he joins Ian Ziering, Tara Reid as "Billy" in Sharknado 3.

Jack is most recognized as Maximus Octavius "Max" Thunderman on Nickelodeon's popular series The Thunderman's.

Star Talent

Congratulations to Maile School acting graduate Spencer Locke for her starring role on Lifetime's movie titled Babysitter's Black Book that premiered on Saturday February 21st. Spencer played the role of Ashley. When her parents' financial problems threaten Ashley's dreams for college, the high school whiz kid takes matters into her own hands. She and her girlfriends turn their babysitting business into a wildly successful escort service for dads. But in this small suburban community, nothing stays secret for long. Inspired by true stories.

Spencer is known as K-Mart in the Resident Evil film series and will reprise her role in 2016 in the feature film Resident Evil: The Final Chapter. Her other industry credits include Candida on Phil of the Future, Bitsy on season one of the Nickelodeon series Ned's Declassified School Survival Guide, ABC's comedy Cougar Town as Kylie, and Amber on Vampire Diaries to name a few. Spencer also is the voice of Wisty Allgood in the audiobooks of the Witch and Wizard series by author James Patterson. Very impressive Spencer!

Maile School acting and advanced acting graduate Justin Smith received great news that he was cast as Carl Stevens in the CBS drama titled Stalker. Justin said, "This is my second time working with executive producer / show runner Kevin Williamson. The first was on the CW popular show Vampire Diaries." Stalker airs on Wednesday nights 10/9c. Justin also began work this past December as Corporal Stanton in the psychological thriller titled Man Down directed by Dito Montiel and starring Shia LaBeouf and Gary Oldman. Man Down will be out in theaters later this year. Justin has stayed busy and worked on the set of The Exes starring Donald Faison and Wayne Knight that aired on TV Land. He has built up quite a resume working on the feature films Baby, Baby, Baby with Brian Klugman and Kelsey Grammer, Walk of Shame, A Good Day to Die Hard starring Bruce Willis as well as the TV mini-series How to Break Up with Your Girlfriend Before Football Season. Congrats and way to go Mr. Smith.

Acting graduate Shyrl "Liz" Johnson just completed her theatric debut in the stage play/musical, The Color Purple which was held at the Henegar Center in Melbourne this past January. She is proud to say she performed in nine shows. Liz is a local jazz vocalist in Brevard County and her reasons for taking acting classes here at The Maile School was to enhance her performance as a vocalist. She never thought she would actually audition for a local play. In The Color Purple she played the role of the Church Soloist which opened the show. This was a major accomplishment for her. She had several other roles in the play. Shyrl says, "I now have the acting bug and would love to perform in more plays and musicals in the future. My drive to Winter Park for the acting classes paid off. Thank you Maile School." This production of The Color Purple had more than 95% attendance which was more than any other show. Wow way to go Liz. Continued success to you.

Keeping up with Maile School graduates and sisters Jessica and Ashley Lonardo. Jessica was the lead in an episode of Swamp Murders this past year and also booked commercials for Church's Chicken and Pantech. She was just nominated for her lead role in Swamp Murders by the Young Artist Awards in LA. Ashley co-starred in an episode of Being Mary Jane which aired this past February. Both girls are repped by Jana Van Dyke Agency in Atlanta and CMG Models and Talent in Orlando. They are also represented by Crackerjack Management in LA which also has a branch in Atlanta. Yeah!

Acting & Modeling graduate Tyler Gary attended his first class at The Maile School at the age of 19. One year later he has already booked industry jobs such as a TV series which aired on the National Geographic Channel titled Crowd Control playing an airplane traveler. He also booked print and web work for Embry Riddle University. He landed roles in a short film called The Writers Tool and a feature film called Miss Peregrine's Home For Peculiar Children as a smart aid worker. This film is directed by Tim Burton and starring Eva Green and Samuel L. Jackson. Tyler says, "Debbie Wisner The President of the Maile School welcomed me with open arms and is like a mother to me always there to answer my questions and guide me in the right direction." Continued Success Tyler!!
