Congratulations to Michael Campion for landing a role in the new Netflix series Fuller House.

Michael is playing Jackson, D.J.'s oldest son, who is having a hard time coping with the loss of his father, breaking rules and stirring up some trouble. He takes after Uncle Jesse aka John Stamos by playing guitar and is a bit of a ladies' man.

Fuller House is will air in 2016 and is about D.J. Tanner-Fuller, now a widow and mother of three. Things become too much to handle, so she asks for help from her sister Stephanie and her best-friend Kimmy.

Maile School acting grad Michael Campion has always wanted to become an actor. He recently landed the role of Robbie Taylor in the film Christmas Switch (2015) with Billy Baldwin and Denise Richards.

He also starred in the feature film Robo-Dog (2015) and has appeared in numerous commercials both locally and nationally.

Michael has performed in theatre with Magic Curtain Productions in the Wizard of Oz, Annie and The Little Mermaid just to name a few.

When Michael is not working he enjoys sports, video games, performing magic tricks and hanging with friends.

STAR TALENT

Congrats to Maile School acting graduate Arielle Kebbel. After recurring heavily in Season 1, of the popular HBO comedy series Ballers, Arielle has been promoted to a regular. She plays the role of Tracy Legette, a beautiful and hot local sports reporter who is also Dwayne Johnson's love interest on the show.

Kebbel next stars in Amazon's Chris Carter series titled The After. Some of Arielle's credits include The CW's Vampire Diaries, 90210, UnReal, The Uninvited, John Tucker Must Die, Aquamarine, Hawaii Five-O, Think Like a Man and two Hallmark TV movies titled A Bride for Christmas and Bridal Wave to name a few. More news to come from this very talented young lady.

Maile School acting, advanced acting and performing troop member Zachary Tucker landed a role in the film Sitter. Sitter is a horror film that was produced by LO Pictures and premiered at the Garden Theater in Winter Garden on October 12th. It is a brilliant Indie film that is a movie within a movie. The main movie is about a sitter who gets caught up in a deranged situation and starts to see things that may or may not be real. While babysitting, the sitter and Joey who is played by Zachary get caught up in a B class movie about murders that are happening at Dinosaur Village. Zachary was cast to play the boy, Joey, who was being looked after by the sitter. There is comedy and horror mixed all in one, giving this movie the best of both worlds. Mom Stacey says, "This is Zachary's first movie he loved every minute from filming to watching the premiere." Zachary has also done print work for the Orlando History Museum. Pictured right are pics of Zachary.

Zachary Tucker

Grad Tara Alexandra McDonald is 16 and was just crowned Miss Thornton Park Teen USA 2016, part of the Miss Universe organization. This allowed her the opportunity to compete at Miss Florida Teen USA last month. Tara is currently working on a independent film called Monsters at Large playing the role of Ashley. She has a long history of acting experience, working on various films and commercials. Tara says, "I am proudly represented by Brevard Talent Group. It all started with The Maile School when I was 10 years old and they called me for my first audition for a film, Captain Fin directed by Kevin O'Neill starring another Maile grad Spencer Locke. This school helped put me on the path to starting a successful career. Maile built the foundation needed to pursue a career in acting and modeling. I would recommend this school to anyone interested in acting or modeling here in Central Florida"! Wow. Thank you Tara.

MORE STAR TALENT

We are so happy for Maile School acting grad Brandon Larracuenta. He is filming Season 2 of Bloodline playing the role of Ben Rayburn. He has worked so hard and finally earned his chair (pictured right). Brandon says, "I'm really excited to be returning to Bloodline. Not only is Ben a fun character to play, but I'll get even more opportunities to work with all these amazing people," Larracuenta explains. "I was in awe to be on set with legendary actors Sam Shepard and Sissy Spacek, who play my grandparents. I was totally humbled to work with veterans Kyle Chandler and Jacinda Barrett. This experience has been awesome and I feel totally blessed." Brandon appears in a cameo role as Kid in the action-thriller feature film, Max Steel. He also is in another supporting role in Rings, the third installment in the wildly-popular The Ring and he guest starred in an episode of NBC's series, Constantine. His credits also include appearances in the kid-favorite Nickelodeon series Every Which Way, A&E's crime-drama The Glades and the Travel Channel's docu-drama Got Home Alive. So proud of all your hard work Brandon.

Are you watching VH1's popular show Couples Therapy? If so, then you saw Maile School's Life Coach and Body Language expert Susan Constantine. Susan was hired on to decode the body language of 5 celebrity couples face-to-face, and see who she caught dead in a lie. Couples Therapy is on VH1 on Wednesday nights at 10:00pm.

Susan is a leading body language expert in human behavior for leadership and deception detection. She has been hired on as a special guest to read body language on many popular shows such as Dr. Phil, The Nancy Grace Show, The Today Show, Good Morning America, Dr. Drew and many more. Susan also offers private coaching one on one here at The Maile School for public speaking, interviewing skills, personal branding, wardrobe, building confidence and more.

Maile School acting graduate Bria Davis booked an industrial for Universal Studios Orlando and short film titled Beyond a Lifetime. She is the female lead museum worker. She starts filming this month. Bria says, "It's my first UCF film, and I'm very excited". She also booked a lead in Indigo: A New Dawn for terminal52 castings, where she played Tristan the lead bully and had the opportunity to be a featured extra in the feature film titled Room 236 and in SOS Mulhere's amor 2. Bria says, "I signed with an agent thanks to The Maile School and hope to continue to get more roles and opportunities this year." Way to go Bria.
