

Meet Michael Campion from Fuller House

Maile School graduate Michael Campion is a successful actor. He was thrilled with the opportunity to work on the film titled Christmas Trade starring Billy Baldwin and Denise Richards. He also starred in the feature film Robo-Dog that was filmed here in Florida. He has also been featured in numerous local and national commercials.

Michael recently filmed the long-awaited sequel to the iconic hit series Full House. The spinoff titled Fuller House will begin streaming on Netflix February 26th.

Fuller House stars Candace Cameron Bure, Jodie Sweetin and Andrea Barber were children themselves on the classic family sitcom, which aired from 1987-1995. The actresses reprise their original roles and are now moms, with four children between them joining the TV family. In Fuller House, D.J. is a pregnant veterinarian who is recently widowed and living in San Francisco. Her sister Stephanie, an aspiring musician, and BFF Kimmy, a fellow single mom, both move in to help raise D.J.’s two boys—the rebellious 12 year old J.D. (played by Maile grad Michael Campion) and neurotic 7 year old Max—plus her soon-to-arrive baby.

Way to go Michael we will be watching.
